DELUSION. PDF.

Psalm 78:49-50. He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by (5) SENDING EVIL ANGELS AMONG THEM. He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence.

1. Ephesians 2:2 Wherein in time (5) past ye walked according to (5) the course of this world, (5) ACCORDING TO THE PRINCE OF (5) THE POWER OF THE AIR [Satan, Dragon, Devil] (5) the spirit that now worketh (5) IN THE CHILDREN OF DISOBEDIENCE:
2. Ephesians 6:12 *For we wrestle (5) NOT AGAINST FLESH AND BLOOD, (5) BUT AGAINST PRINCIPALITIES, AGAINST POWERS, against the RULERS OF (5) THE DARKNESS OF THIS WORLD, against (5) SPIRITUAL WICKEDNESS IN HIGH PLACES.
3. Romans 8:38 *For I (7) am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor (5) ANGELS, NOR PRINCIPALITIES, NOR POWERS, (7) nor things present, nor things to come,
4. Ephesians 3:10 To the intent (5) THAT NOW UNTO THE PRINCIPALITIES (5) AND POWERS IN HEAVENLY PLACES MIGHT be known by (7) the church the manifold wisdom of God,
5. Colossians 1:16 *For by him were (7) all things created, that are in heaven, (7) and that are in earth, visible and (5) INVISIBLE, WHETHER THEY BE THRONES, OR (5) DOMINIONS, OR PRINCIPALITIES, OR POWERS: all things (7) were created by him, and for him:
6. Colossians 2:15 *And (5) HAVING SPOILED PRINCIPALITIES AND POWERS, (7) he made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it.

SATAN AND HIS FALLEN ANGELS THROWN OUT OF HEAVEN ONTO THE EARTH AT THE BEGINNING OF THE SEVEN YEAR TRIBULATION

Revelation 12:7 And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with THE DRAGON; AND THE DRAGON AND HIS ANGELS FOUGHT, 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. 9 So THE GREAT DRAGON WAS CAST OUT, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, AND HIS [FALLEN] ANGELS WERE CAST OUT WITH HIM.

10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, “Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! WOE TO THE INHABITANTS OF THE EARTH AND THE SEA! FOR THE DEVIL HAS COME DOWN TO YOU, HAVING GREAT WRATH, BECAUSE HE KNOWS THAT HE HAS A SHORT TIME.”

(7) THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS REVEALED SEVEN REASONS

1. God's Desire is to 'REVEAL' and 'NOT CONCEAL.' God has previously indicated that His people can perish due to 'lack of knowledge.' This requires proof, understanding, discernment, prophetic vision and the Grace of God in His provision for Christ's Sheep.
 2. THE REVELATION OF THIS COMPLETES ANOTHER PROPHECY THAT GIVES GOD GLORY. GOD INDICATES TO HIS CHURCH, THAT HE TELL US THESE THINGS, SO THAT WHEN THEY COME TO PASS, WE WILL KNOW THAT IT IS HIM.
 3. LOGIC DEMANDS A RESPONSE TO TRUTH OR WISDOM. 'AS YOU SEE THESE THINGS COME TO PASS, KNOW THAT YOUR REDEMPTION, RAPTURE, HARPAZO, CATCHING UP, 'TWINKLING OF AN EYE' OR 'IN A MOMENT' IS LITERALLY 'IMMINENT.'
 4. MbS, although 'hidden' to most of the sleeping world, is the Biggest Figure Rising Up or 'Standing Up' on the world's Geo-Political Arena. This is very well documented by this Watchman, and several other confirming souls.
 5. The following information is intended to convey the depth, breadth and scope of Mohammed bin Salman's 'grafting into' the World Economic Forum, and the other major entities completing the Beast's System of One -World Government. Be a 'Berean' do your own geo-political research, two or three Watchman confirm a matter. Be a Watchperson.
 6. Revelation of this should generate a 'FEAR OF THE LORD' among those who are unsaved and perishing, and to those souls 'sitting on a fence' regarding their acceptance of Jesus Christ's Offer Of Salvation.
 7. For those Tribulation Saints who read this over the next SEVEN (7) YEARS, YOU WILL KNOW WHO THE MAN-BY-SATAN (MBS) IS: Prince, Beast, Antichrist, 8th King of Saudi Arabia, One-World Government Leader, Man of Lawlessness, Man of Sin, the Assyrian, the 'Little Horn'. Read recent online postings that will indicate he 'CONFIRMED' or 'AGREED TO' Normalize 'relations' with Israel. FOR SEVEN (7) YEARS.

(7) A 'SON OF MAN', 'WATCHMAN', 'SERVANT', 'PROPHET'

1. Zechariah 12:3 And in (7) that day will I make Jerusalem a (7) burdensome stone for all people: all that (7) burden themselves with it shall be cut (7) in pieces, though all the people of (7) the earth be gathered together against it. (77777)
2. Isaiah 21:6 For (7) thus has the Lord said to me: "GO, SET A (7) WATCHMAN, LET HIM DECLARE WHAT HE SEES." (77)
3. Ezekiel 3:16-17 Now it came to pass at (7) the end of seven [7] days that the (7) word of the Lord came to me, (7) saying, "SON OF MAN, I HAVE MADE (7) YOU A WATCHMAN for the house of (7) Israel; therefore hear a word from My (7) mouth, and give them warning from Me:
4. Ezekiel 33:1-2 THE WATCHMAN AND HIS MESSAGE. Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: 'When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and MAKE HIM THEIR WATCHMAN,
5. Ezekiel 33:6-7 But IF THE WATCHMAN SEES THE SWORD COMING AND DOES NOT BLOW THE TRUMPET, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but HIS BLOOD I WILL REQUIRE AT THE WATCHMAN'S HAND.' "So you, SON OF MAN: I HAVE MADE YOU A WATCHMAN for the HOUSE OF ISRAEL; therefore you shall hear a WORD FROM MY MOUTH AND WARN THEM FOR ME.
6. Revelation 10:5-7 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, THAT THERE SHOULD BE DELAY NO LONGER, but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, THE MYSTERY OF GOD WOULD BE FINISHED, as HE DECLARED TO HIS SERVANTS THE PROPHETS.
7. Revelation 10:8-10 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth." He said to me, "YOU MUST PROPHECY AGAIN ABOUT MANY PEOPLES, NATIONS, TONGUES, AND KINGS.¹⁵ And (7) he saith unto me, The waters which (7) thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are (7) peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. (777)

A JOURNEY THROUGH THE AGES: THE GLOBAL HISTORY OF UFO SIGHTINGS

Have aliens walked among us since the dawn of time? As a fan of the shows Ancient Aliens, Skinwalker Ranch and of course E.T., like many I've always been fascinated with the idea of extra-terrestrials. The history of UFO sightings spans centuries, encompassing a wide range of phenomena that have intrigued, puzzled, and sometimes alarmed people across the globe. This article will take you through the evolution of UFO sightings, from ancient accounts to modern-day encounters, highlighting significant incidents that have contributed to the ongoing debate and fascination with unidentified flying objects.

ANCIENT BEGINNINGS

The story of UFO sightings begins in ancient times. Texts, artworks, and even cave paintings from different cultures hint at encounters with celestial phenomena or beings that could not be explained by the knowledge at the time.

For instance, ancient Indian texts such as the Mahabharata and the Ramayana mention vimanas, flying machines that were used by the gods. Similarly, descriptions of "flying shields" were reported by the Romans.

THE MIDDLE AGES TO THE RENAISSANCE

During the Middle Ages and the Renaissance, there were numerous accounts of mysterious objects seen in the sky. Chronicles from this period describe sightings of strange stars, fiery globes, and cross-shaped objects traversing the heavens, often interpreted through a religious lens as signs from God or omens.

One of the most famous sightings occurred in Nuremberg, Germany, in 1561. Residents observed what they described as an aerial battle, followed by the appearance of a large black triangular object and a crash-landing outside the city. This event was documented in the local newspaper, the Nuremberg Gazette.

THE 19TH CENTURY: AIRSHIP SIGHTINGS

The 19th century saw a series of "airship" sightings across the United States, particularly during the 1896-1897 period. Witnesses reported seeing powered, dirigible-like vehicles equipped with searchlights and sometimes occupants piloting them. These sightings occurred before human flight was a reality, making them particularly puzzling and sensational at the time.

THE MODERN ERA OF UFOS

The modern era of UFO sightings began in earnest in the 20th century, with two pivotal events that shaped public and governmental interest in the phenomenon.

- 1947, Kenneth Arnold Incident: The term "flying saucer" was coined after private pilot Kenneth Arnold reported seeing nine crescent-shaped objects flying at high speeds near Mount Rainier, Washington.

This incident garnered national media attention and is often considered the start of the modern UFO era.

- 1947, Roswell Incident: Perhaps the most famous UFO incident in history occurred near Roswell, New Mexico.

A rancher discovered mysterious wreckage on his land, leading to claims of a recovered alien spacecraft. The U.S. military stated it was a crashed weather balloon, but the incident has remained at the heart of UFO conspiracy theories.

GOVERNMENT INVOLVEMENT

The increasing number of 'UFO' sightings over the years led to governmental investigations. In the United States, projects such as Project Blue Book (1952-1969) were initiated by the U.S. Air Force to study UFO sightings. Although officially it concluded that most sightings were misidentifications of natural phenomena or conventional aircraft, the closure of such projects only fueled more speculation and conspiracy theories about government cover-ups.

UFO SIGHTINGS ARE A GLOBAL PHENOMENON

From the mass sighting over the Nuremberg skies in the 16th century to the Westall UFO encounter in Australia in 1966, where over 200 students and teachers witnessed an unexplained object land and then take off at incredible speed, to the recent 2004 Nimitz encounter recorded by U.S. Navy pilots, UFO sightings continue to captivate the public's imagination worldwide.

As we can see, the history of UFO sightings is rich and varied, spanning several different eras and cultures. While many sightings can be explained through scientific analysis as natural phenomena or human-made objects, a small percentage remain unexplained, continuing to intrigue both the public and researchers. With the U.S. government's recent acknowledgment of unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP) and the release of declassified videos, interest in UFOs has surged, suggesting that the fascination with what might be flying in our skies is far from over.

'I SAW GLOWING WHITE FLAMING ORB UFO – IT WAS LIKE ONE FROM 1350S JESUS CHRIST PAINTING'

An infamous painting housed in the Visoki Decani Monastery in Kosovo, and painted by an unknown artist, shows a pretty standard scene of Christ's crucifixion - with two odd extras.

A bloke has claimed he saw a “glowing white orb UFO” and it looked exactly like one depicted in the infamous 1300s painting of Jesus Christ's crucifixion. According to a post on Reddit's biggest alien forum, the poster – going by the name of Kaiser Schleier – was talking to his brother-in-law while in an unidentified countryside when he has his “first experience” of an encounter with a UFO.

Taking to the forum, he said: “I was chatting with my brother-in-law in the countryside when suddenly, I glanced up and spotted a glowing white orb. It swiftly shot away the moment I looked at it, hovering about 20 feet above ground, leaving behind a trail of orange flame-like glow as it moved. It moved swiftly and emitted no sound.

“I was so stunned, I jolted and said 'What the fk is that?!' – my brother-in-law confirmed to have seen the same thing as me, saying that it looked like a flying glowing moon.” The poster returned later on to add more to his story, to explain that the object he saw look suspiciously like the strange UFO-like object depicted in the 1350s painting of the crucifixion of Jesus Christ.

Located in the Visoki Decani Monastery in Kosovo, and painted by an unknown artist, the image shows a pretty standard scene of Christ's crucifixion . . . but what is in the top left and right corners has left people baffled for centuries. It shows two UFO-shaped objects, with people inside, flying across the skyline. And it is those that the original Reddit poster claims he saw.

He explained: "Despite its radiant glow, it emitted no illumination onto its surroundings. Its hues of white and orange were exceptionally vivid, yet it remained silent as it traversed in a perfectly straight trajectory, devoid of any audible disturbance even amidst the passage through the air.

"This occurrence defied any rational explanation, unlike anything I've ever encountered before. Its proximity ruled out possibilities like a comet or shooting star, as it hovered closer to the ground than the tree canopy.

"I'm left baffled by this enigmatic phenomenon, never before witnessed or heard of, and the mere fact that I bore witness to it fills me with a profound sense of awe."

'ALIENS' (FALLEN ANGELS, THE WATCHERS, GREAT DELUSIONS, GREAT DECEPTIONS, GREAT LIES)

Paul Rolland | Night Watchman Ministries

Psalm 78:49-50. (7) He cast upon them the fierceness of (7) his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by (5) sending evil angels among them. (7) He made a way to his anger; (7) he spared not their soul from death, but (7) gave their life over to the pestilence.

2 Thessalonians 2:8-12 (7) And then shall that Wicked be revealed [Man of Lawlessness, Son of Perdition, Beast, 8th King, Prince, First Rider / White Horseman, Antichrist], whom the Lord shall (7) consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall (7) destroy with the brightness of his coming [Christ's second physical coming to earth at the end of the Great Tribulation]: Even him, whose coming (7) is after the working of Satan with (7) all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all (7) deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they (7) received not the love of the truth, that (7) they might be saved. And for this (7) cause God shall send them STRONG DELUSION, that (5) they should believe a lie: That they all might (7) be damned who believed not the truth, (5) but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

These seven (7) verses indicate that a 'strong delusion' will be sent to men sometime during the seven (7) year tribulation. We know this because the first three (3) verses deal with the time period when the Holy Spirit (that holds evil at bay) is removed from the world and:

THE 'WICKED' MAN OF SIN OR LAWLESSNESS RISES UP ON THE WORLD STAGE.

VERSE 8 INDICATES THAT THIS IS THE SAME WICKED MAN THAT WILL BE DESTROYED AT CHRIST'S PHYSICAL, SECOND COMING TO EARTH AT THE VERY LAST DAY OF THE SEVEN (7) YEAR TRIBULATION.

Men, during the seven (7) year tribulation are deceived because they don't love the truth God gave mankind in the form of Jesus Christ.

They are deceived spiritually (mystery religion) and are unrighteous (not saved) and perish because of this. They don't want anything to do with the truth offered to them by Christ's salvation. They deny Christ and his offer of salvation. They don't love the truth (Christ) and the whole idea of needing salvation. They don't want to be saved and don't like the idea of having to be saved. They have pleasure (joy) in following their own false religions, practices and hedonistic joys and are damned because they forcefully and willingly reject Christ.

As such, God will send them a 'strong delusion' (fallen angels in the deluded guise or form of 'aliens'). There is nothing new under the sun. Fallen angels existed before the creation of mankind, and have worked for Satan, ever since his fall, into deceiving men over the course of many ancient civilizations (on into this current epoch.) God sent Christ to save mankind. Men reject Christ. God sends fallen angels to damn men. Men accept fallen angels (aliens). Men die. Simple. It is not a great mystery, as some would believe or think impossible.

Revelation 12:7-12 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. ['Angels' are referenced three – 3 times, emphasis and intensity. Yes, there are evil, fallen angels, sons of God, or 'Watchers.')

The Coming 'Strong Delusion'. Same 'Lie or Delusions' for 6,000 (6) years and during EVERY EPOCH, including the coming seven (7) year tribulation. 'Because they love not the truth or the word of God, God will send among them a 'strong or great delusion' so they can be damned.'

A SHORT BIBLICAL (7) LOOK AT (5) 'FALLEN ANGELS / SONS OF GOD'

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/jw3jG7oEH1Y>

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/08F3WM9mjxQ>

There is no such thing as 'aliens.' Fallen angels in defiled, false, counterfeit, deceptive, grotesque satanic flesh appear as 'aliens.' Satan has made a mockery of 'the imagers (human body) of God' by attempting to duplicate God's created body of man into a defiled, unclean, fleshly form that is a sick imager of Satan.

Different 'caste or ranking' of angels manifest in different physical defiled forms. Just as the human spirit must dwell in flesh to exist in the physical world, some lower rankings of the demonic spirit realm must dwell in defiled flesh to exist in the physical world or physical dimension outside of the spiritual dimension. Once holy and bright in spiritual appearance, fallen angels are now grotesque, ugly and dark because of iniquity (just like Satan) and manifest as such. They now represent the likeness of Satan and some of his attributes, including lies, deception, advanced knowledge and a willingness to accept the 'worship' of men (as in antiquity).

These particular 'fallen angels' in Satan's army are the 'foot soldiers' who work on demand and at the bidding of Satan and/or other fallen angels in higher orders. They are the 'lowest' of the angelic realm in terms of rank, power, attributes, exercising of will and influence over men. They do NOT have power or influence over nations, states, cities, weather or other aspects of God's physical creation (higher 'ranking' fallen angels carry out these functions). They carry out the 'grunt' work of Satan's master plan. In Satan's plan, those fallen angels (believed to be 'aliens') are sent to deceive men (a 'great or strong delusion').

Men want to believe in aliens, are lustful of advanced technology and knowledge for military purposes, and are 'deluded' into thinking that aliens are here to save them (or at least to offer them 'help') in tackling the various crisis occurring over the seven (7) year tribulation. The idea or belief that aliens could really be something entirely evil, biblically speaking, is 'preposterous' to men. To those who do not love the truth, God will send a 'strong delusion.' The fallen angels come, not as man's saviors, but for man's destruction. Only Christ saves men spiritually and physically. Aliens are a lie or a delusion that men lustily believe in because they don't want to believe the truth about this particular aspect of God's creation that rebelled against the established order of created, spiritual beings. Yet, God still is in control of His creation, even over the fallen angels and Satan. God can, and does, use fallen angels to carry out His will, depending on His purpose. 'A broken tool can still have some use.'

LAS VEGAS ALIEN FOOTAGE 'IS REAL' CLAIMS EXPERT AS 'ONCE YOU SEE IT, YOU CAN'T DENY IT'

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/jbqS94kpbw>

Angel Kenmore, 17, called 911 after spotting an alien in his family's garden, and an expert has backed him up after spending months analysing the footage the family captured. An expert has claimed that viral footage of a UFO carrying a “demon creature” alien and landing in someone's back yard “is real”.

Late last year the world was shocked when Angel Kenmore, 17, called 911 after coming face-to-face with what he described as "100% non human" beings in Las Vegas, United States.

Officers from the Metro Las Vegas Police Department were sent to the scene, and bodycam footage showed a strange bluey-green ball of light zipping through the night's sky that same night. The police received a second call 39 minutes after the first, with another resident claiming there were two unknown beings in his garden.

Describing the scary scene, Angel said at the time: “We were in the backyard, and then, out of nowhere, we just saw a big light fall down. It basically crashed in the backyard. And a couple of seconds later, I saw the big giant creature in front of me.

"It was moving and breathing. It was p*ssed off, like it wanted to do something looking at me." He described this first being as growling "like a dog".

And now, speaking to NewsNation, a veteran crime scene recreation expert who watched and studied the video footage has claimed that the footage is real . . . and that it actually shows not one, but two aliens in the man's garden.

Scott Roder said: “Once you see it, you can’t deny it – there’s no editing. That is an original video. We tried to debunk it to see if there was something that was added to the video. All of our results came back as it was authentic.”

Roder used motion tracking software on the footage to help aid his quest, and it actually found that there were two aliens in the clip. It was initially thought that the second figure was just a shadow cast by a torch used by a family member, but Roder is adamant that it is not.

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/tR3bAl39IjA>

"I don't understand how the shadow could just be floating above the fence. I don't believe that makes any sense."

"We took the vector motion, points in space, and then we attach that to a figure in the background to show that the movement of the shadow reflects the movement of a body that is attached to the head," he explained.

"We don't believe it's a floating head. We believe it's attached to a body. And the motion of that head from right to left is consistent with the motion that we see between the slats of the fence."

WASHINGTON IS GETTING SERIOUS ABOUT REPORTS OF UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS

what the Pentagon now labels as unidentified aerial phenomena or UAPs. There is a long history of such sightings and the increase in such observations could be a sign of things to come.

Are we really being visited by aliens or is all this just a bunch of hokum? There might be another more daunting explanation.

<https://www.foxnews.com/video/6331900847112>

Last week, there was a congressional hearing on UAPs, which introduced new and shocking information from three Pentagon whistleblowers who testified about alien craft that defy the laws of physics and claim our government is hiding the facts.

David Grusch, a former intelligence officer testified the U.S. government has "intact and partially intact" alien vehicles and some were found with non-human "biologics." Former Navy pilots David Fravor and Ryan Graves claimed to have spotted UAPs during training missions, some "every day for at least a couple years" and "The technology that we faced is far superior to anything that we had."

BIDEN ADMINISTRATION DISTANCES ITSELF FROM PENTAGON OFFICIAL WHO BASHED UFO HEARING

Following that hearing a group of lawmakers asked the House speaker to form a committee to investigate government programs involving UAPs. Specifically, they requested "subpoena authority" to collect information to "discharge our constitutional, legislative and oversight roles." What are we to make of this news? Well, there are many reports of strange objects in the sky dating from ancient times.

<https://www.foxnews.com/video/2263925264001>

Historian Josephus wrote of a mysterious spectacle that occurred over Israel in A.D. 70. "Chariots and troops of soldiers in their armour were seen running about among the clouds," wrote Josephus. There were numerous such events around the entire country as "armed battalions hurtling through the clouds" and with "great noise" causing "quakes." There are many other recorded events of unexplained UAPS over the past millennia.

More recently in America after World War II, the number of UFO sightings spiked, and as a result our government formed a number of task forces to investigate. Perhaps the best-known incident occurred in 1947 when Roswell Army Air Field personnel recovered debris from a "flying disc." However, in 1994 a U.S. Air Force report concluded the debris was from a top-secret nuclear test surveillance balloon.

UFO REVELATIONS HAVE LAWMAKERS IN A SHAKESPEAREAN CONUNDRUM

I don't dismiss the possibility we are being visited by aliens. Further, I'm quite aware there are things my five senses (sight, smell, touch, taste and hearing) can't understand, and they may be real like radio waves. For example, I believe there is a very real spiritual domain beyond our senses. You can call them aliens, angels, demons or other.

Most religions address this spiritual reality. Certainly, the Jews, Muslims and Christians have rich histories with ample evidence of spiritual engagements.

Jews and Christians will recall in 2 Kings 2:11 that Elijah went up into heaven like a whirlwind aboard a chariot pulled by horses of fire. Was that a UAP? Are the many references to angels in the Bible old wives' tales?

Years ago, evangelist Billy Graham wrote a book, "Angels: God's Secret Agents," in which he chronicled many first-hand accounts of angels interacting with humans. A search of Amazon's website finds many books testifying to the reality of angelic beings.

Certainly, people of many faiths understand God's nemesis, Satan, is very real and his army of demons are not to be dismissed. Jesus dealt with demons who understood His true identity and obeyed His command. He cast the demons – "My name is Legion; for we are many" – into a herd of swine (pigs) that subsequently rushed over a steep bank into the Sea of Galilee (Mark 5:1-13, NKJV).

Today, Satan's demonic army is very active. They manifest themselves through various practices such as divination, witchcraft, channeling and wizardry (Deuteronomy 18:10-12). They deceive, attack the human mind with the intent of control, and they leverage power to take captive people, especially the prominent.

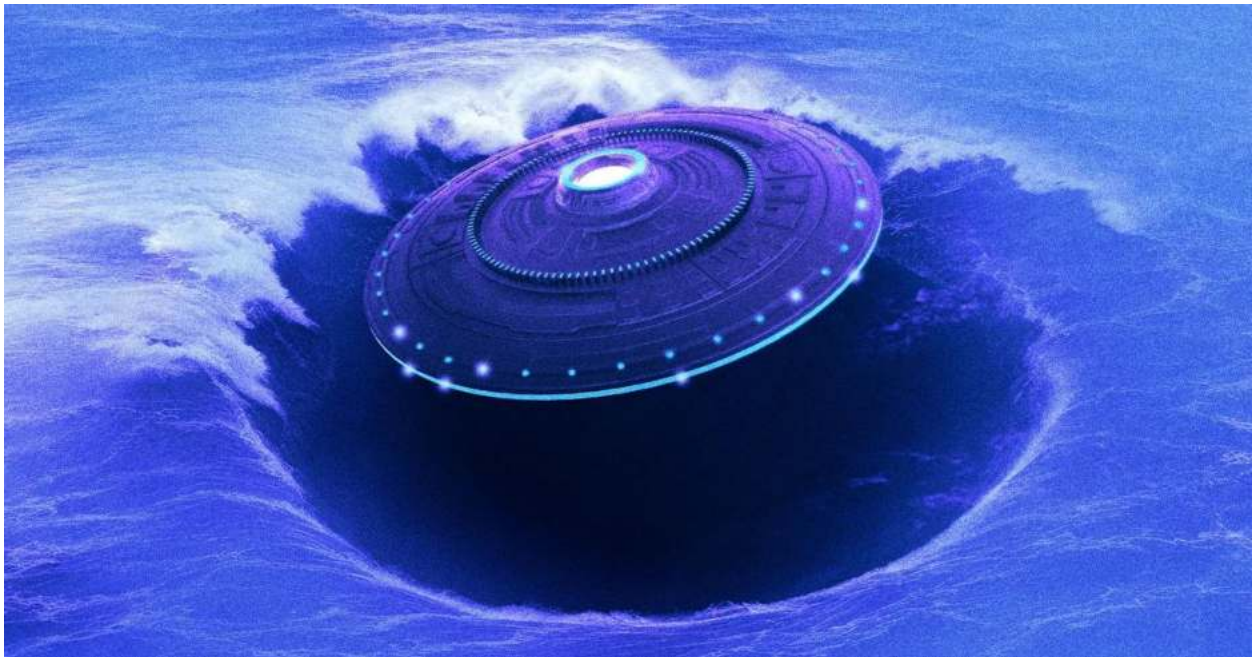

Some readers will dismiss the possibility of spiritual beings – angels and demons struggling for control. However, many of us accept that there is much we don't understand.

Whether aliens are probing Earth or are already among us is yet to be officially confirmed. What's not in doubt for many of us is the spiritual battle between the forces of God and Satan, which is intensifying.

In fact, the challenges we face today - pandemics, natural disasters, out of control crime, wars and more – are likely influenced by the spirit world, which is leading us to the prophetic end times, and might manifest itself as a spike in UAP sightings.

LUIS ELIZONDO, FORMER AATIP DIRECTOR, ON UFOS AND NATIONAL SECURITY

FORMER NAVAL OFFICER RAISES ALARM ABOUT “WORLD-CHANGING” UNDERWATER UFO CAPTURED ON VIDEO

A report about a strange craft that appeared to defy both aerial and aquatic physics is apparently making a splash among the ex-military set.

Tim Gallaudet, an oceanographer and former Naval rear admiral who served as the author of a March white paper about so-called "unidentified submerged objects" or USOs, told Fox News this week that he considers it both "scientifically valid" and critical to national security to study these phenomena.

Released by the newly-convened Sol Foundation, a think tank dedicated to studying what the military calls "unidentified anomalous phenomena" (UAPs), the 29-page report centers on a 2019 video taken aboard the Omaha off the coast of San Diego.

The video, which was leaked to filmmaker Jeremy Corbell and verified by the Pentagon as a legit instance of Naval-recorded UAP in 2021, raises more questions than it answers — and in both his interview and the Sol Foundation report, Gallaudet suggests that the strange craft should be treated as a threat.

"Pilots, credible observers, and calibrated military instrumentation have recorded objects accelerating at rates and crossing the air-sea interface in ways not possible for anything made by humans," Gallaudet wrote in the think tank's first report.

https://twitter.com/Dagnum_PI/status/1654924652119232512

While nobody can explain what exactly is going on in the USS Omaha video, the capabilities of the craft it documented could jeopardize American maritime security, Gallaudet told Fox, "which is already weakened by our relative ignorance about the global ocean."

"The fact that unidentified objects with unexplainable characteristics are entering US water space and the [Department of Defense] is not raising a giant red flag is a sign that the government is not sharing all it knows about all-domain anomalous phenomena," the former Naval officer continued, perhaps referencing the Pentagon's UAP-hunting All-domain Anomalous Resolution Office (AARO).

While UFOs generally get most of the attention — be it from the government, academia, or conspiracy theorists — Gallaudet and others consider USOs to be equally threatening as their flying counterparts, if not more so.

Scot Christenson, the director of the US Naval Institute, wrote in a 2022 editorial for Naval History Magazine that although there has to date been "no documented damage to a plane caused by a UFO," mysterious sea creatures and other USOs "have presented the Navy with the greatest hazard."

While there's a wide gap between little green men and the storied krakens of the deep, the military's main priority when it comes to unidentified objects or creatures in the air or in the sea is safety — and if there's video footage out there of "world-changing" crafts, as Gallaudet put it in his report, that's definitely something that's going to concern the Pentagon.

"To meet the security and scientific challenges," he continued in the Sol Foundation report, "transmedium UAP and USOs should be elevated to national ocean research priorities."

4 STUNNING UFO ENCOUNTERS CAUGHT ON CAMERA | THE PROOF IS OUT THERE

<https://youtu.be/-G2tPQzF0RU>

WHY AMERICANS ARE UNIQUELY OBSESSED WITH ALIENS

The recent congressional hearing on unidentified anomalous phenomena sparked a new wave of conversation and fanaticism. More Americans believe that reports of unidentified flying objects are "either alien ships or alien life-forms," according to a 2022 YouGov poll, which surveyed 1,000 U.S. adults.

July 26 gave many UFO-enthusiastic Americans what they've been waiting for: The government publicly confronted the topic of extraterrestrial life. On that day, a former military officer, David Grusch, along with two other military veterans, testified to House representatives that the military and executive branch agencies had withheld information regarding unidentified anomalous phenomena (UAP) from Congress and the public.

As America's infatuation with the otherworldly grows, a pressing question takes center stage: Does solid evidence exist to substantiate the existence of visitors from the unknown?

Grusch told lawmakers that the U.S. has possibly been aware of "non-human" activity since the 1930s, and that it had addressed crashed UFOs.

A Defense Department spokeswoman told the Associated Press that the agency had not discovered "any verifiable information to substantiate claims that any programs regarding the possession or reverse-engineering of extraterrestrial materials have existed in the past or exist currently."

Jock Brocas, the creator and editor in chief of Paranormal Daily News, a publication that covers all things extraterrestrial, said the congressional hearing has turned everything "upside down."

"It gave me shivers when Grusch said that we have biological evidence of beings ... that goes beyond anything [we've heard]," he told Yahoo News.

Recent polling shows more Americans believe that reports of unidentified flying objects are "either alien ships or alien life-forms," according to a 2022 YouGov poll, which surveyed 1,000 U.S. adults.

The poll found that 34% believe UFOs are probably alien ships or alien life-forms, up from 20% in 1996, while another 34% said they didn't know and 32% said there's a natural scientific explanation for the phenomena.

Grusch's testimony drew skepticism, particularly among those who doubt that UFOs, UAPs and aliens even exist. Mick West, an American science writer who appeared on Elizabeth Vargas Reports on NewsNation, said that Grusch's assertions aren't accurate and that "the video evidence doesn't stack up."

"It's hard to say what evidence we may have regarding life on other planets," says Carrie McCabe, co-host of the Ain't It Scary podcast, a show that focuses on mysterious, unexplained encounters. "We don't know of many confirmed sightings or concrete cases; we have a lot of interesting videos and pictures, but not a whole lot else."

The U.S. has "a very unique relationship with the concept of extraterrestrials and alien life," McCabe told Yahoo News, adding that she believes it's because "America has had very particular experiences with UFOs, ones that have become famous in the country, in alien 'history,' and across the world, like Roswell and Area 51.

“In events like these, our government has become involved and even part of the story, so it’s all become deeply entwined with the American identity. We’re also one of the foremost producers of pop culture, especially film, and so we grapple with these unanswered questions via film and fiction even more than our counterparts across the world, leading to big titles like E.T., Independence Day, The X-Files and so on,” she said.

The congressional hearing wasn’t a one-off event, with lawmakers indicating that a bipartisan bill and additional hearings could be forthcoming.

“It was a very illuminating hearing,” Rep. Glenn Grothman, R-Wis., said about the testimonies, according to SpaceRef. “Obviously, I think several of us are going to look forward to getting some answers in a more confidential setting. I assume some legislation will come out of this.”

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT SAYS THERE’S STILL NO EVIDENCE THAT ALIENS EXIST

“While the Defense Department has said there’s no evidence linking UAPs to aliens yet, many social media users still took the hearing as proof aliens exist. The hearing did spawn a lot of memes, but many of them signaled how uninterested users were in the findings. UFOs, previously a hot topic for conspiracy theorists, are now almost too mundane to break through the news cycle, some users said.” — NBC News, Daysia Tolentino

AMERICANS ARE TOO OVERWHELMED TO CARE

“Seventy years ago, claims of flying saucers around Washington were the talk of the town and front pages. Today? Many Americans suggested they are too overwhelmed by the problems on Earth to care much about what’s outside it.

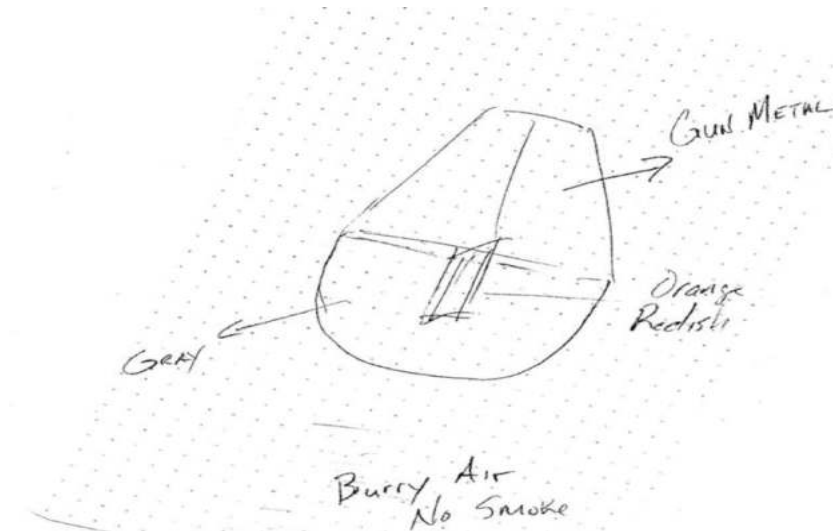

“‘Man I got a lot going on lately,’ read one meme viewed nearly 6 million times on Twitter since it was posted Wednesday, depicting a fictitious exchange between a human and a member of a newly identified alien class.” — Annabelle Timsit, Washington Post

MEMBERS OF CONGRESS ARE SEARCHING FOR ANSWERS

“The long love affair between the United States and UFOs is experiencing a torrid second honeymoon. In 2020, the decision by the Department of Defense to release a series of videos from 2004 and 2015 — depicting encounters by military pilots with unidentified flying objects (UFOs) — sent the imagination of public opinion soaring. Now, this curiosity has moved a group of congresspeople in Washington to shake off long-standing taboos in search of answers about what the authorities prefer to call unidentified aerial phenomena (UAP) — a term used to brush away the tinge of conspiracy that the term ‘UFO’ carries.” — Iker Seisdedos, El País

PEOPLE REMAIN FASCINATED BY THE POTENTIAL OF OTHERWORLDLY LIFE

“America’s obsession with aliens and UFOs is nothing new — in fact, it’s something that’s been in the zeitgeist since at least the immediate postwar years of the late ’40s and ’50s, when paranoia stemming from the use of the atomic bomb and fraught international tensions caused many to start looking to the skies, wondering what could possibly happen next.” — Carrie McCabe to Yahoo News.

AIR FORCE PILOT'S BIZARRE ENCOUNTER WITH CAPSULE-LIKE CRAFT OFF FLORIDA DECLASSIFIED

AU.S. Air Force pilot says they saw something they couldn't readily identify that was the "size and shape" of an "Apollo spacecraft" during a sortie from Eglin Air Force Base in Florida last year, according to recently declassified documents. Three other unidentified objects were also tracked on radar during the incident, which Florida Congressman Matt Gaetz first publicly disclosed last summer.

Abbas Michael Dharamsey, an independent researcher, obtained the documents relating to the incident in question, which took place on January 26, 2023, over the Gulf of Mexico off the coast of Florida, via the Freedom of Information Act. John Greenewald, well known for his use of the FOIA to uncover new details on a wide variety of topics, posted what Dharamsey received on his website The Black Vault earlier today.

A SATELLITE IMAGE OF EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE IN FLORIDA. GOOGLE EARTH

Dharamsey obtained four intelligence reports on the incident that are all redacted almost entirely, as well as two pages from a visitor's log of some kind that are also largely redacted.

However, the release also included a hand drawing of what the pilot claims to have seen, as well as an unclassified summary of the incident.

The Air Force further told Dharamsey that a video from the incident also exists, but that this was being withheld for reasons of national security, according to John Greenewald's post about the documents on The Black Vault.

The drawing, reproduced at the top of this story and below, shows a broadly pear-shaped object. Annotations on the drawing say that one end had a gun metal coloring, while the other end was gray. A center section is also marked as being "orange redish [sic; reddish]." A note at the bottom appears to say "blurry air" (which could indicate heat distortion or some other kind of disturbance), but "no smoke."

USAF VIA FOIA/THE BLACK VAULT

https://youtu.be/hXO_RwR1UA8

This is all in line with the description provided in the unclassified summary. "UAP-1 [was] likened to an 'Apollo spacecraft' in size and shape, with an 'orange-reddish' illuminated rounded bottom and the top section [consisting of] 'a three-dimensional cone shape' comprising 'gunmetal gray segmented panels,'" it says.

This all does present some extremely broad similarities to the Command and Service Modules used during the Apollo mission to the Moon in the late 1960s and early 1970s. The Command and Service Module used in the Apollo 15 mission in 1971. NASA

"UAP" in the unclassified summary stands for unidentified aerial phenomena, the U.S. government's current preferred term for what have been called unidentified flying objects (UFO) in the past. "UAP-1" reflects the fact that there were three additional UAPs observed via radar during the incident.

"On 26 Jan 23, an [sic] USAF pilot gained radar lock on four separate UAP," according to the unclassified summary. "Upon approach, the pilot was able to make visual contact and employ sensors to obtain a screen capture of the first of these objects. The remaining three were only detected by radar."

"UAP-1 operated at an altitude of about 16,000 above ground level (AGL). The second and third UAPs were noted at altitudes of 17,000 and 18,000," the summary adds. "The fourth was lost from radar and no altitude was noted. Moreover, no airspeeds were noted for any of the UAP in this report."

"Of note, upon closing to within 4,000 feet of UAP-1, the radar malfunctioned and remained disabled for the remainder of the event," it continues. "Post-mission investigation revealed that a circuit breaker had triggered, but that maintenance technicians were unable to conclusively diagnose the fault."

The full unclassified summary of the UAP incident that occurred over the Gulf of Mexico in January 2023. USAF via FOIA/The Black Vault Many of these details are also roughly in light with what Matt Gaetz, a Republic Representative from Florida, first disclosed during a hearing in July 2023.

"They saw a sequence of four craft in a clear diamond formation for which there is a radar sequence that I and I alone have observed in the U.S. Congress. One of the pilots goes to check out that diamond formation and sees a large floating, what I can only describe as an orb. Again, like I said, not of any human capability that I am aware of," Gaetz said at that time. "And when he approached, he said that his radar went down. He said that his FLIR [forward-looking infrared] system malfunctioned and that he had to manually take this image from one of the lenses and it was not automated in collection as you would typically see in a test mission."

The now-released unclassified summary of the incident makes no mention of the failure of any sensor on the aircraft beyond the radar. The summary also does not say what type of aircraft the pilot who saw the object was flying in at the time, though it has been said in the past that they were in an F-22 Raptor stealth fighter. Raptors have been based at Eglin, which is also a major Air Force test and evaluation hub, since Hurricane Michael devastated Tyndall Air Force Base, also in Florida, in 2018.

The F-22 notably does not have a built-in forward-looking infrared system. The Air Force has been testing stealthy pods for the Raptor that contain an infrared search and track sensor system, which is different than a FLIR but could potentially provide basic imagery of the targets they spot under certain conditions. This system is not operational and was very unlikely to have been on this aircraft even if it was an F-22. You can read how IRSTs could help with detecting and tracking UAP here.

What these jets do have is what is called the AN/AAR-56 Passive Missile Approach Warning System (PMAWS) system, which includes an array of staring infrared sensors installed around the aircraft that can provide spherical incoming missile warning and other situational awareness benefits. This system could potentially also have the capability to capture imagery of a target of interest that is relatively close by. While it has been hinted at before, this capability has never been officially disclosed, which is unsurprising considering much of the F-22's capabilities remain classified.

DECLASSIFIED SUMMARY:

On 26 Jan 23, an USAF pilot gained radar lock on four separate UAP. Upon approach, the pilot was able to make visual contact and employ sensors to obtain a screen capture of the first of these objects. The remaining three were only detected by radar.

UAP-1 likened to an "Apollo spacecraft" in size and shape, with an "orange-reddish" illuminated rounded bottom and the top section "a three-dimensional cone shape" comprising "gunmetal gray segmented panels."

UAP-1 operated at an altitude of about 16,000 above ground level (AGL). The second and third UAPs were noted at altitudes of 17,000 and 18,000. The fourth was lost from radar and no altitude was noted. Moreover, no airspeeds were noted for any of the UAP in this report.

Of note, upon closing to within 4,000 feet of UAP-1, the radar malfunctioned and remained disabled for the remainder of the event. Post-mission investigation revealed that a circuit breaker had triggered, but that maintenance technicians were unable to conclusively diagnose the fault.

Once again, we still cannot confirm F-22s were involved at this time.

At the July 2023 hearing, Gaetz said he initially learned of the incident through a legally protected disclosure to his office. He, along with Tim Burchett and Anna Paulina Luna, Republican Representatives from Tennessee and Florida, subsequently traveled to Eglin to get more information.

"We asked to see any of the evidence that had been taken by [the] flight crew in this endeavor and to observe any radar signature ... as well as to meet with the flight crew. We were not afforded access to all of the flight crew and, initially, we were not afforded access to [the] images and to [the] radar [data]," Gaetz said. "Thereafter, we had a bit of a discussion about how authorities flow in the United States of America and we did see the image and we did meet with one member of the flight crew who took the image."

"The image was of something that I am not able to attach to any human capability either from the United States or from any of our adversaries and I am somewhat informed on the matter having served on the Armed Services Committee for seven years, having served on the committee that oversees DARPA [the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency] and advanced technologies for several years," he added.

<https://youtu.be/zFk1Fv11xKw>

Without seeing the imagery and other data that was collected during the January 2023 UAP incident over the Gulf of Mexico, it is difficult to independently assess what the pilot may have seen. An Apollo command and service module is just over 36 feet long and nearly 13 feet in diameter. So, if the comment about the UAP being of a similar size is at all accurate, it would have been a relatively large object.

Among what little is unredacted in the four intelligence reports released to Dharamsey are warnings that explicitly say "NOT FINALLY EVALUATED INTELLIGENCE." The reports were all sent by the Air Force Office of Special Investigation's (AFOSI) Detachment 104 at Eglin primarily to the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA). They also appear to have been forwarded to a litany of other intelligence and other offices across the U.S. military and the U.S. Intelligence Community. What subsequent assessments DIA or any of those other entities may have made is unknown.

An example of one of the "NOT FINALLY EVALUATED INTELLIGENCE" warnings on the reports about the January 2023 UAP incident. USAF via FOIA/The Black Vault A portion fo the front matter from one of the heavily redacted intelligence reports indicating it was forwarded to a wide array of different U.S. military units and government organizations. USAF via FOIA/The Black Vault

There are interestingly no clear indications that any of these reports were sent to the Pentagon's All-domain Anomaly Resolution Office (AARO). AARO was established in 2022 specifically to assist with the refining and centralizing of policies and procedures for tracking, reporting, and analyzing UAP incidents. The office is also supposed to serve as a central repository of UAP-related intelligence assessments and other data.

In the past two years or so, AARO has assessed dozens of UAP incidents to have actually involved identifiable objects, such as balloons or drones. Over the years, The War Zone has repeatedly highlighted how many such sightings are very likely to be evidence of platforms operated by adversaries or potential adversaries, such as China and Russia, which are being used for intelligence collection or other malign purposes.

Still, if nothing else, "we were told by Matt Gaetz that he attended a classified briefing in which two pilots encountered, what he could best describe as 'an orb', during a routine training mission off the Gulf of Mexico. With this FOIA request, we can confirm that the event took place," Dharamsey told The Black Vault's John Greenewald. "My next steps are to appeal the request for the video to verify what the object actually looks like, try and find any possible human origin for the craft, and to file more FOIAs with regards to any investigation of the event by AARO or any other government organization."

Altogether, many questions remain about this UAP incident, but, as Dharamsey notes, there is now no debate that an Air Force pilot reported seeing something highly unusual off the coast of Florida last year.

<https://youtu.be/zBXJgYW7KeQ>

THE PENTAGON HAS BROKEN ITS SILENCE ON UFOS AND SECRET ALIEN RELATIONS

A newly published government report states that not only is there no proof of any secret effort by the U.S. government to cooperate with aliens or research alien technology, there is no proof that UFO sightings are the result of extraterrestrial visitations to Earth. The “Report on the Historical Record of U.S. Government Involvement with Unidentified Anomalous Phenomena (UAP),” written by the All-Domain Anomaly Resolution Office, denies all claims regarding the U.S. government and UFOs, stating that they are the result of decreased public trust in government, the prevalence of UFOs in public culture, and unnecessary government secrecy.

The report was compiled by the All-Domain Anomaly Resolution Office, an office of the U.S. Secretary of Defense that, in 2022, was tasked to investigate reports of Unidentified Aerial Phenomena (what people in the U.S. government call UFOs). The 63 page report details the office’s investigation into claims that the U.S. government has some kind of secret UFO program going on—claims ranging from secret government knowledge of UFOs to actual relations between the government and extraterrestrial civilizations.

The report—which came out Friday, March 8th—apparently has a classified version, but it is unlikely to have anything new or different. AARO was led to believe that the difference in classification is likely due to discussion of sensitive or secret programs, as well as individuals, that are part of the secret UFO-government enterprise.

THE NARRATIVES

The report attempts to address two major narratives that AARO believes emerged about the U.S. government and UFOs. The first is the conspiracy theory that “the USG and industry partners are in possession of and are testing off-world technology that has been concealed from congressional oversight and the world since approximately 1964, and possibly since 1947, if the Roswell events are included.”

AARO states that it investigated a number of claims in this vein. One was that named corporations, likely well known U.S. defense contractors, were experimenting on alien technology. Another was that the U.S. government was in possession of exotic, otherworldly materials made by aliens. Others included a claim that a former U.S. military officer had touched a UFO, and a former U.S. service member had observed “U.S. Special Forces” loading materials into a UFO. Individuals interviewed by AARO claimed that “between 2004 and 2007 the White House requested a research institute in Virginia study the theoretical societal impacts of disclosing that UAP are extraterrestrial in origin”

The second narrative was that UFOs were somehow interfering with the U.S. nuclear arsenal, and that “a cluster of UAP sightings that occurred in close proximity to U.S. nuclear facilities have resulted in the malfunctioning and destruction of nuclear missiles.” If true, this would represent a substantial risk to the U.S. nuclear deterrent, leaving U.S. nuclear weapons vulnerable to an outside force that was at best unknown, and at worst, hostile.

THE DEBUNKING

The AARO report was unable to substantiate any of the various claims it investigated. None of the claims regarding UFO technology, U.S. government secret programs, or individuals with important information panned out. Many of the allegations appear to be based on hearsay or misunderstandings, or involved second or third hand information that ultimately went nowhere.

The report knocks down one allegation after another. The named companies denied being involved with reverse engineering UFO technology, and material allegedly recovered from aliens was actually a metal alloy made on Earth by humans. The military official who reportedly touched a UFO denied the event took place, suggesting whoever made the allegation was referring to an incident in which he actually touched a F-117A Nighthawk stealth fighter. The report on alien contact—allegedly commissioned by the White House—was real, but the U.S. government had nothing to do with it.

The AARO report does not describe what the office found when it looked into the report of “special forces” loading materials into a UFO, but that is assumed to have not panned out, either.

The report results are not surprising. If there was clear and verifiable proof of U.S. government involvement with aliens, it probably would have surfaced a long time ago. It is also possible that such involvement is already heavily insulated from investigation, and that those who are or were involved are still sticking to sworn secrecy oaths—which, in government circles, come with serious consequences for those that violate them. Did the AARO report fully investigate the vastness of the military industrial complex? Maybe, and maybe not.

UFOS OVER EUROPE? - INSIDE THE EU'S FIRST CONFERENCE ON UNIDENTIFIED AERIAL PHENOMENA

How did this UAP conference come about in the EU Parliament?

Francisco Guerreiro, a Green Member of the European Parliament, immediately asked the European Commission after the hearing of U.S. whistleblower David Grusch in the U.S. Congress in July 2023 whether there is also information about UAPs in the EU. The Commission's response indicated that no EU agency deals with this. However, it is known that several member states have been conducting UAP research for decades, such as Spain, Italy, and France, and extensive secret files have been released.

In other countries like Germany, however, the military and government remain silent. "The aim of this event is to open a debate about UAPs in the EU Parliament," Guerreiro said. The goal is to eliminate the stigma associated with the topic in aviation, the military, journalism, and politics.

WHO WAS PRESENT AND WHAT WAS DISCUSSED?

In addition to UFO researchers from several EU countries, interested parliamentarians were also present (recording here). André Jol from the UAP Coalition Netherlands explained how UAPs differ from ordinary objects and why they could potentially threaten air safety. Italian researcher Edoardo Russo from the scientific European research network EuroUFO gave a general overview of the phenomenon and pointed out that almost all EU countries have already been affected by UAP sighting waves.

Swedish astronomer Dr. Beatriz Villarroel from the Nordic Institute for Theoretical Physics at the University of Stockholm talked about how science deals with UAPs. The big stigma surrounding the topic is the reason why UAPs have hardly been researched in the last 70 years. However, there are some promising results. Villarroel found some anomalous rows of lights in the night sky that appeared and disappeared within minutes on sky photos from the time before the launch of the first human satellite, Sputnik.

From the USA, former US Navy pilot and founder of "Americans for Safe Aerospace" Ryan Graves spoke. He pointed to the reliability of pilot reports and the necessity to systematically collect UAP data. Governments play an important role in freeing UAPs from their stigma.

WERE DIRECT WITNESSES TO THE PHENOMENON ALSO PRESENT?

Dutch pilot Christiaan van Heijst made it clear that UAPs are not an American invention. In his 20 years as a cargo pilot, he has already seen inexplicable objects over Europe several times. Once, a very bright light shot down in front of the plane at an incredible speed over Germany. "It made the clouds beneath the plane glow, it was not a reflection," said the experienced professional pilot. He observed something similar years later over Greece. "Suddenly a very bright light appeared directly in front of us in the night sky," the pilot remembered, "It appeared and disappeared four times in a row and moved differently to satellites or planes. After the fourth time, it suddenly shot off at an incredible speed."

Since he first spoke publicly about it two years ago, more pilots with similar experiences have approached him. "My colleagues have reported glowing or silver objects hovering next to the cockpit of their plane and sometimes flying near the speed of sound. Others have reported groups of pulsating lights that overtook them or flew at great height and speed," said the pilot. The observations are very different and cannot be classified. "The stigma must be overcome so that pilots and military personnel can openly report without having to fear consequences."

WHY ARE UAPS A TOPIC FOR THE EU PARLIAMENT?

Parliamentarian Guerreiro pointed out that the EU could lose its trust in the population if it does not deal with the topic in a transparent manner. "The whole world is talking about it, the U.S. Congress has dealt with it, but in the EU, I have not heard any debate about it yet," said the parliamentarian.

So far there is no uniform, EU-wide system for reporting, monitoring, and analyzing UAP sightings. The phenomenon needs to be researched in a coordinated manner and the stigma reduced. UAPs should be taken into account in EU laws to better deal with them, for example in air traffic safety or in space.

How has the European Parliament responded to the topic of UAPs so far and what measures have been taken?

Ten European countries have already released military or intelligence files on UAPs, others are still pending. The last time the EU Parliament dealt with the question was in the early 1990s when Belgium was hit by a massive wave of UAP sightings.

<https://www.dailymotion.com/video/x8xhxce>

At that time, the EU Parliament's Committee on Energy, Research, and Technology launched an investigation and asked individual EU states about their handling of the phenomenon. Elevating the French state UAP research authority GEIPAN to the rank of an EU authority was suggested, in order to research UAPs in a coordinated manner. After an EU election, however, the project fizzled out. The phenomenon is still present and is increasingly posing a serious problem for flight safety.

WHAT'S NEXT?

After all, some of the members present also showed interest in UAPs, such as José Penedo del Rio, Chief Political Affairs of the European Union Aviation Safety Agency in Cologne. He pointed out that there is already an EU-wide system for reporting flight safety-relevant events. It is possible that pilots will increasingly use this little-known system to report their UAP incidents, thereby raising awareness at EU level that there is a real need for action. Guerreiro recently introduced a resolution for pilots to do this free of stigma.

But all in all, Guerreiro seems to be standing alone in parliament. In addition, he will not run for the European elections in June, so the question remains as to what will happen to his project after that. Only one thing seems certain: the phenomenon will continue – sooner or later, UAPs will land on the European Parliament's table again.

More people today not only believe in Aliens than they do in the existence of God, but they also believe that aliens have visited Planet Earth more than the fact that Jesus is the Son of God. Which is why UFO experts are now declaring to us that Ufology and all that it entails has effectively become a new religion for the 21st century, where people now believe that Aliens will save them and all of mankind, not God. Yet little do people realize the true seductive identity of UFOs and Aliens, let alone how they are singlehandedly being used by ancient dark forces to usher in one of the most deceptive times in the history of mankind. UFOs, Aliens and the Coming Mass Abduction seeks to equip you with the explosive truth and hard hitting facts concerning these so-called extraterrestrial visitors and their secret, hidden demonic agenda or 'Occultation'.

'UK ROSWELL' UFO DEBRIS ANALYSIS BLOWS ALIEN MYSTERY OPEN AS 'HYBRID TECH DIDN'T EXIST'

Fresh tests on metal debris found at the Europe's Roswell UFO crash site in Wales more than 40 years ago reveals that whatever hit those trees in 1983 was made with metals unavailable at the time. Fresh analysis of debris found at the site where an unfamiliar flying craft crashed into trees decades ago blows open the question of whether or not aliens really do exist.

In January 1983, an object flying through the air hit trees near the small Welsh village of Llanilar, near Aberystwyth in the middle of the night. Before it flew off seemingly undamaged, it scattered metal detritus across four fields. Now 40 years on, new analysis of this metal ignites the debate of extraterrestrial lifeforms with startling revelations.

In an update on his recent book from Flying Disk Press, Europe's Roswell: 40 Years Since Impact, Mark Olly, a UFO expert and author, reveals evidence that suggests the object that hit the trees was from another planet, or at least not Earthly. Olly wrote that The Wales Federation of Independent Ufologists "recovered about half a dozen pieces of metal and foil from the wooded area adjacent to the fields".

Three debris samples collected from the site, and looked after by fellow UFO expert Gary Rowe since, were sent to labs in Australia and America for new testing. While Olly wrote that it had previously been believed that all the metal found was the same, the new analysis proved otherwise.

He noted: "Australia came in first as 'Aluminums Foam', partially agreeing with British Aerospace who back-in-the-day thought it was Aluminum in the form of Duralumin. America then returned their analysis as almost pure Lanthanum, an exotic and extremely expensive to produce metal on the new part of the periodic table."

<https://www.youtube.com/shorts/vRGRAV272UM>

Not only were the metals different, both Aluminum Foam and Lanthanum were not in circulation in 1983.

Olly wrote: "So we had two different metals in unique and specific forms that were not known to have been developed by the late 1970's or available for actual use back in 1983. So was it one of ours, was it one of 'theirs', or was it some kind of back-engineered or hybrid technology?"

Further tests on the grey "resin" adhesives, the "none-aerodynamic green paint" found on the Aluminum, the "strange green rubber honeycomb coating" over the Lanthanum were inconclusive, whole the "honeycombed metal foil" was not analyzed.

BRIT SOLDIERS RECOVERED 'NON-HUMAN UFO' THAT CRASHED IN SECRET OPERATION, SAYS EX-PARA

Franc Milburn, who was a member of the British Army's elite Parachute Regiment, said the craft crashed in the north of England and was retrieved in a secret operation in the 1980s

Brit Special Forces soldiers recovered a "non-human" UFO that crashed in the north of England, according to an ex-Para and military intelligence officer.

Franc Milburn, who was a member of the British Army's elite Parachute Regiment, said the craft was retrieved in a secret operation in the 1980s. Its presence has never been revealed in any publicly-released documents in the past 30 years.

Franc spoke out after US intelligence whistleblower David Grusch claimed officials had recovered debris and alienbiologics' from 10 crashed UFOs. He said boffins had been secretly tasked with reverse-engineering ET technology in a bid to give the US an advantage in the global arms race.

Franc said his information came from a member of a secret MI6-run unit known as "The Increment" which conducted the operation.

Now known as E Squadron, it recruits the most experienced and reliable operators from the UK's Special Forces units - the Special Air Service or SAS, Special Boat Service (SBS) and Special Reconnaissance Regiment (SRR) - and take part in covert, clandestine, and paramilitary operations.

"They'd been told by the RAF that a craft which wasn't Russian, British, or American had been downed," Milburn said.

“He said they were tasked to secure and retrieve the craft in the north of England. “They were flown in by helicopter. They established a cordon, a perimeter, and they approached the craft.

“He didn’t describe the craft. He just said it was obvious it was non-human.

“And it was obvious that had been occupants.

“I don’t know if that meant they saw seats inside or they found a dead alien or whatever it was. I don’t know.

“He said it was obvious that the occupants had basically gone off along the ground.

“Then it was a case of securing the craft and recovering those occupants to take them into custody.

“Part of the unit was left protecting the craft. They would have left maybe six to eight blokes to cordon the craft.

“And the others would have been on foot, quad bikes, or 4x4s trying to track down these entities that escaped from it, with helicopters supporting.

“He said after that it was totally passed over.

“He said, Scientists and technicians came in and it was completely out of our hands. We were flown away by helicopter and we knew nothing more after that’.”

Franc said when his comrade, who fought in the 1982 Falklands War, refused to tell him any more - including the precise location or a description of the craft. He did not push him as he was not majorly into’ UFOs.

But after the US launched a probe into dozens of close encounters between Top Gun pilots and mystery craft - often near nuclear bases or weapons sites - he recalled the conversation.

“This guy says he was involved in a crash retrieval in the UK,” Franc told The Good Trouble Show on YouTube.

“This is one of the most capable guys I have ever met.

“I know the guy’s not a bulls and I know people who know him. I can validate him.

“This thing really put the zap on his head at the time.

“This guy was not phased by anything.

“But this was without doubt the most extraordinary thing that had ever happened to him in his life - apart from surviving contact with the enemy.

“This was other worldly or outer worldly stuff.

“He got to the point where he wanted to tell it to somebody. I believe him 100%.

“I worked with the bloke in Civvy Street. This is a true-blue paratrooper. I spoke to former SAS and paratrooper mates of his.

“We’re talking about a guy who fought bravely in the Falklands in some of the most brutal engagements.

“This is not the kind of guy who f* around or talks s.”

Franc worked in British military intelligence until the late '90s then as a contractor in Iraq alongside US Army Special Forces and the US State Department’s Bureau of Diplomatic Security.

He is now an analyst for the Begin-Sadat Center for Strategic Studies, an Israeli university think tank with close ties to Israeli military intelligence, where he has written public research papers on the US government’s approach to UFOs.

His comrade became like a brother’. “ He told me one night because he was sick of keeping this big story bottled up, but knew he couldn’t tell anyone who wasn’t ex-Special Forces,” he added.

A declassified 2000 UK Defence Intelligence Staff report said the existence of \Unexplained Aerial Phenomena ‘ - UAPs or UFOs - was `indisputable’.

“Credited with the ability to hover, land, take-off, accelerate to exceptional velocities and vanish, they can reportedly alter their direction of flight suddenly and clearly can exhibit aerodynamic characteristics well beyond those of any known aircraft or missile – either manned or unmanned,” the report said.

“Attempts by other nations to intercept the unexplained objects, which can clearly change position faster than an aircraft, have reportedly already caused fatalities,” the report warned, adding that no attempt should be made to out-maneuver a UAP during interception’.

But the report denied any incursions by UFOs into UK airspace and said that "no artefacts of unknown or unexplained origin have been reported or handed to the UK authorities."

The Ministry of Defence said they were "not aware of any salvage operations with materials of unexplained origin."

SATAN THROWN OUT OF HEAVEN

Revelation 12:7 And war broke out in heaven: Michael and his angels fought with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels fought, 8 but they did not prevail, nor was a place found for them in heaven any longer. 9 So the great dragon was cast out, that serpent of old, called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world; he was cast to the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.

10 Then I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, "Now salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of His Christ have come, for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God, day and night, has been cast down. 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death. 12 Therefore rejoice, O heavens, and you who dwell in them! Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you, having great wrath, because he knows that he has a short time."

Make Your (7) Decision for Christ NOW!!!!!! Time is Up!!!!!!

Jesus Christ's Offer of Salvation:

<https://youtu.be/4lzupUaqVM0>

The ABCs (7) of Salvation through Jesus Christ (the Lamb)

A. (7) Admit/Acknowledge/Accept that you are sinner. Ask (7) God's forgiveness and repent of your sins.

. . . "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23).

. . . "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one." (Romans 3:10).

. . . "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us." (1 John 1:8).

B. Believe Jesus is Lord. Believe that (7) Jesus Christ is who He claimed to (7) be; that He was both fully God (7) and fully man and that we are (7) saved through His death, burial, and resurrection. (7) Put your trust in Him as your (7) only hope of salvation. Become a son (7) or daughter of God by receiving Christ. (7777777) 7x7

. . . "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (John 3:15-17). For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13).

C. Call upon His name, Confess (7) with your heart and with your lips (7) that Jesus is your Lord and Savior.

. . . "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9-10).

. . . "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." (John 1:8-10).
