(7) THE HOLY SPIRIT HAS REVEALED SEVEN REASONS

1. God's Desire is to 'REVEAL' and 'NOT CONCEAL.' God has previously indicated that His people can perish due to 'lack of knowledge.' This requires proof, understanding, discernment, prophetic vision and the Grace of God in His provision for Christ's Sheep.
  2. THE REVELATION OF THIS COMPLETES ANOTHER PROPHECY THAT GIVES GOD GLORY. GOD INDICATES TO HIS CHURCH, THAT HE TELL US THESE THINGS, SO THAT WHEN THEY COME TO PASS, WE WILL KNOW THAT IT IS HIM.
  3. LOGIC DEMANDS A RESPONSE TO TRUTH OR WISDOM. 'AS YOU SEE THESE THINGS COME TO PASS, KNOW THAT YOUR REDEMPTION, RAPTURE, HARPAZO, CATCHING UP, 'TWINKLING OF AN EYE' OR 'IN A MOMENT' IS LITERALLY 'IMMINENT.'
  4. MbS, although 'hidden' to most of the sleeping world, is the Biggest Figure Rising Up or 'Standing Up' on the world's Geo-Political Arena. This is very well documented by this Watchman, and several other confirming souls.
  5. The following information is intended to convey the depth, breadth and scope of Mohammed bin Salman's 'grafting into' the World Economic Forum, and the other major entities completing the Beast's System of One -World Government. Be a 'Berean' do your own geo-political research, two or three Watchman confirm a matter. Be a Watchperson.
  6. Revelation of this should generate a 'FEAR OF THE LORD' among those who are unsaved and perishing, and to those souls 'sitting on a fence' regarding their acceptance of Jesus Christ's Offer Of Salvation.
  7. For those Tribulation Saints who read this over the next SEVEN (7) YEARS, YOU WILL KNOW WHO THE MAN-BY-SATAN (MBS) IS: Prince, Beast, Antichrist, 8th King of Saudi Arabia, One-World Government Leader, Man of Lawlessness, Man of Sin, the Assyrian, the 'Little Horn'. Read recent online postings that will indicate he 'CONFIRMED' or 'AGREED TO' Normalize 'relations' with Israel. FOR SEVEN (7) YEARS.

(7) A 'SON OF MAN', 'WATCHMAN', 'SERVANT', 'PROPHET'

1. Zechariah 12:3 And in (7) that day will I make Jerusalem a (7) burdensome stone for all people: all that (7) burden themselves with it shall be cut (7) in pieces, though all the people of (7) the earth be gathered together against it. (77777)
2. Isaiah 21:6 For (7) thus has the Lord said to me: "GO, SET A (7) WATCHMAN, LET HIM DECLARE WHAT HE SEES." (77)
3. Ezekiel 3:16-17 Now it came to pass at (7) the end of seven [7] days that the (7) word of the Lord came to me, (7) saying, "SON OF MAN, I HAVE MADE (7) YOU A WATCHMAN for the house of (7) Israel; therefore hear a word from My (7) mouth, and give them warning from Me:
4. Ezekiel 33:1-2 THE WATCHMAN AND HIS MESSAGE. Again the word of the Lord came to me, saying, "Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them: 'When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from their territory and MAKE HIM THEIR WATCHMAN,
5. Ezekiel 33:6-7 But IF THE WATCHMAN SEES THE SWORD COMING AND DOES NOT BLOW THE TRUMPET, and the people are not warned, and the sword comes and takes any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but HIS BLOOD I WILL REQUIRE AT THE WATCHMAN'S HAND.' "So you, SON OF MAN: I HAVE MADE YOU A WATCHMAN for the HOUSE OF ISRAEL; therefore you shall hear a WORD FROM MY MOUTH AND WARN THEM FOR ME.
6. Revelation 10:5-7 The angel whom I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised up his hand to heaven and swore by Him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, THAT THERE SHOULD BE DELAY NO LONGER, but in the days of the sounding of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, THE MYSTERY OF GOD WOULD BE FINISHED, as HE DECLARED TO HIS SERVANTS THE PROPHETS.
7. Revelation 10:8-10 Then the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again and said, "Go, take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the earth." He said to me, "YOU MUST PROPHECY AGAIN ABOUT MANY PEOPLES, NATIONS, TONGUES, AND KINGS. And (7) he saith unto me, The waters which (7) thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are (7) peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues. (777)

JESUS CHRIST IS (7) THE 'ONE' WORTHY TO OPEN THE SEALS

Revelation 6 And I (7) saw when the Lamb opened one of (7) the seals, and I heard, as it (7) were the noise of thunder, one of (7) the four beasts saying, Come and see. (7777)

Revelation 6:2 And I saw, and (7) behold a white horse: and he that (7) sat on him had a bow; and (7) a crown was given unto him: and (7) he went forth conquering, and to conquer. (7777)

Commentary; the rider is the 'beast' or 'antichrist'. His being clothed in white suggests '3' FALSE RIGHTEOUSNESS, FALSE PEACE AND FALSE AUTHORITY. He has a bow, but no arrows. He rules with lies and threats, but no military or arms. He conquers and subjugates, not with force but with '5' LIES, DECEPTION, FALSE COVENANTS AND FALSE AGREEMENTS AND FALSE PROMISES. He is the world's greatest 'political' leader and deceiver. HE IS THE ONE WHO 'CONFIRMS THE FALSE COVENANT OF SEVEN YEARS WITH JACOB' WHICH STARTS THE TRIBULATION. You should know now of who I speak. HIS 'CROWN' REPRESENTS AUTHORITY, RULERSHIP AND POSITION. It even literally represents his 'position' as Crown Prince, once the tribulation begins. The 'white horse upon which he sits' is a white Arabian stallion.

Revelation 13:7 And it (7) was given unto him to make war (7) with the saints, and to overcome them: (5) and POWER was 'GIVEN' him (Prince, Beast, Antichrist) (7) over ALL kindreds, and tongues, and NATIONS. (777)

THE ANTICHRIST; 'A KING OF DARK SENTENCES'

(POLITICAL LANGUAGE, FALSE AGREEMENTS, DECEIVING COVENANTS, LIES, BACK-ROOM DEALING, DECEPTION, INTRIGUE, ANNOUNCEMENTS AND DECEIVING DOCTRINES AND PROGRAMS.)

23 (7) "And in the latter time of their (7) kingdom, when the transgressors are come to (7) the full, A KING OF FIERCE COUNTENANCE, (7) AND UNDERSTANDING DARK SENTENCES, SHALL STAND UP.

24 And his power shall (7) be mighty, but not by his own (7) power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, (7) and SHALL PROSPER, AND PRACTICE, and shall (7) destroy the mighty and the holy people.

25 (7) And through his policy also he SHALL (7) CAUSE CRAFT TO PROSPER IN HIS HAND; (7) and he shall magnify himself in his (7) heart, and BY PEACE SHALL DESTROY MANY: he shall also (7) stand up against the Prince of princes; (7) but he shall be broken without hand." (Daniel 8:23-25)

MBS (MAN-BY-SATAN) - THE GREAT SPEAKER, PRINCE OR BEAST PERFORMS WONDROUSLY AND DECEIVINGLY

<https://youtu.be/LnRGNIPCRis>

The Imam of the Age, Imam Mahdi (as) is said to come to unite the (false Islam) believers, and mankind in general under the banner of Divine Unity and guidance, bringing in a world order that is more balanced and in tune with all the facets of human nature. It is said that he (Mahdi) will establish justice by overthrowing those who have perverted it for their own gains.

And it is said that he will usher in a period of great progress and flowering of human knowledge and potential. Prince Mohammed bin Salman because they now view Saudi Arabia — with the world's fastest growing large economy — as a global powerhouse, based in large part upon the reforms he has instituted?

DOCUMENTARY: SATAN, THE ANTICHRIST AND THE ONE-WORLD GOVERNMENT

<https://youtu.be/v3o2krpudN4>

And because of that success and others, do more and more leaders now see the crown prince as one of the most influential voices in the world? That same “the room goes instantly silent to hear the words of wisdom” is now taking place on the global stage. When Mohammed bin Salman speaks, some leaders seemingly do go silent to hear every word. Why? The world is changing. Power is shifting. Alliances are being created or reinvented, and Saudi Arabia and the crown prince are behind much of the change. It's time to focus on the flash. (Douglas MacKinnon, a political and communications consultant, was a writer in the White House for Presidents Ronald Reagan and George H.W. Bush)

“Power tends to corrupt, and absolute power corrupts absolutely.” The logical explanation for this phenomenon is the decline in the quality of leadership and ethical standards of political institutions, even with democratic accountability. A regrettable state of affairs; world politicians lack the credibility needed to build a global system that is worth complying with and respecting. Does the world not deserve a respectable leader who can put an end to the appeasement of the masses with slogans and populist actions? “We do not want another committee, we have too many already. What we want is a man of sufficient stature to hold the allegiance of all people, and to lift us out of the economic morass into which we are sinking. Send us such a man, and be he god or devil, we will receive him.”

NUMBER OF NUCLEAR WEAPONS HELD BY MAJOR POWERS RISING

There are now an estimated 12,512 warheads across the globe, with most of the new ones in military stockpiles said to be China's

The number of operational nuclear weapons in the arsenals of the major military powers is on the rise again according to a leading thinktank, whose analysts warn the world is "drifting into one of the most dangerous periods in human history".

At a time of both deteriorating international relations and the escalation of nuclear sabre-rattling, there are now said to be an estimated 12,512 warheads globally, of which 9,576 are in military stockpiles ready for potential use, up 86 on a year ago.

The rise brings to an end the period of gradual decline that followed the end of the cold war. The Stockholm International Peace Research Institute (Sipri) suggested 60 (6) of the new warheads were held by China.

The other new weapons are attributed to Russia (12), Pakistan (five), North Korea (five) and India (four).

The increase in battle-fit warheads comes despite a statement in 2021 from the UN's five permanent security council members – the US, Russia, China, the UK and France – that "nuclear war cannot be won and must never be fought".

Around 2,000 of those – nearly all of which belong to Russia or the US – are kept in a state of high operational alert, meaning that they are fitted to missiles or held at airbases hosting nuclear bombers.

Sipri notes, however, that the full picture is difficult to judge as a number of countries, including Russia, the US and the UK, have reduced their level of transparency since Vladimir Putin launched his full-scale invasion of Ukraine.

China, the world's third biggest nuclear power, is believed to have increased its number of warheads from 350 in January 2022 to 410 in January 2023. That arsenal is expected to keep growing but Sipri predicts it they will not surpass the arsenals of the US and Russia.

The report adds that China has never declared the size of its nuclear arsenal and that many of its assessments rely on data from the US Department of Defense (DOD).

In 2021, commercial satellite imagery revealed that China had started construction of hundreds of new missile silos across the north of its territory.

Hans M Kristensen, an associate senior fellow with Sipri's weapons of mass destruction programme, said: "China has started a significant expansion of its nuclear arsenal. It is increasingly difficult to square this trend with China's declared aim of having only the minimum nuclear forces needed to maintain its national security."

France (290) and the UK (225) are the world's next largest nuclear powers and British operational arsenal is expected to grow further following an announcement two years ago that it was raising its limit from 225 to 260 warheads.

Of the 225 UK warheads, 120 of are said to be operationally available for delivery by Trident II D5 submarine-launched ballistic missiles (SLBMs), with about 40 being carried on a nuclear-powered ballistic missile submarine (SSBN) that is on patrol at all times. The UK government has said, however, that it will no longer publicly disclose its quantities of nuclear weapons, deployed warheads or deployed missiles amid increased global tensions. The new British policy is just one sign of a breakdown in cooperation over the future of nuclear weapons.

SATELLITE IMAGES SHOW NUCLEAR TEST SITES EXPANSION OF SUPERPOWERS

<https://youtu.be/sJR9Sj5oDyE>

The US suspended its bilateral strategic stability dialogue with Russia following the invasion of Ukraine and the Kremlin announced it was suspending its participation in the last remaining nuclear arms control treaty limiting the strategic nuclear forces of the two cold war foes.

Meanwhile, Russia's government has increasingly spoken of the risk of nuclear war since its invasion of Ukraine on 24 February. Putin has said that he has put Russia's nuclear deterrent on high alert. He also said in the immediate wake of his invasion that the consequences for those who stood in his country's way would be "such as you have never seen in your entire history". Since then, Nato's arming of Ukraine's military has provoked a constant stream of nuclear threats from figures close to the Kremlin.

Dan Smith, a director at Sipri, said: "We are drifting into one of the most dangerous periods in human history. It is imperative that the world's governments find ways to cooperate in order to calm geopolitical tensions, slow arms races and deal with the worsening consequences of environmental breakdown and rising world hunger."

THIS IS JOHN'S DESCRIPTION OF NUCLEAR HOLOCAUST

“The earth rolls up like a scroll,” is obviously a reference, from a first-century perspective, of what nuclear explosions will look like. In a nuclear explosion, the atmosphere literally rolls back on itself. A tremendous rush of air flows outward from the initial explosion creating a tremendous vacuum. It is the air flowing back into the vacuum which creates such destruction.

He writes, "Stars fell to earth." The Greek word "stars" here describes a meteor. Meteors strike the atmosphere and glow fiery red. When they hit the earth, they pulverize dirt and other materials that remain in the atmosphere, shutting out the sun, for two or more years.

Nuclear winter results. No sunshine equals no crops. People starve.

His description may also apply to today's "FRACTIONAL ORBITAL BOMBS." Nuclear-tipped missiles are fired simultaneously from orbiting satellites. These can strike several cities simultaneously. When these missiles streak through the air, they'll look like meteors entering the atmosphere.

US-GCC DEFENSE WORKING GROUPS TO LOOK AT INCREASING INTEGRATED AIR, MISSILE DEFENSE

Meeting comes on heels of joint military exercises between US, Saudi Arabia

SENIOR AMERICAN OFFICIALS WILL GO TO SAUDI ARABIA NEXT WEEK AS PART OF A DELEGATION THAT WILL HOST THE NEXT ITERATION OF THE US-GULF COOPERATION COUNCIL \(GCC\) DEFENSE WORKING GROUPS.

A US MILITARY OFFICIAL TOLD AL ARABIYA ENGLISH THAT THE MEETINGS AIM TO ADVANCE US-GCC COOPERATION AND MULTILATERAL INTEGRATION AGAINST SHARED AIR AND MARITIME THREATS.

Dan Shapiro, the top Pentagon official for the Middle East, will lead the US delegation, which will begin meeting on May 22. The sides will provide updates and exchange views on ways to enhance integrated air and missile defense (IAMD) and maritime security cooperation.

Last month, senior US and Emirati officials met at the Pentagon for the annual US-UAE Joint Military Dialogue (JMD), with specific discussions focused on integrated air and missile defense and cooperation on emerging capabilities.

“This event is policy-focused and strategic in nature, and in addition to the office of the Secretary of Defense, will bring together senior civilian and military representatives from the Joint Staff, Missile Defense Agency, US Central Command (CENTCOM), US Naval Force Central Command (NAVCENT), Air Forces Central (AFCENT) and the Defense Security Cooperation Agency,” the military official added.

Last year, the US delegation included State Department officials, led by then-US Special Envoy for Iran Rob Malley. He has since had his security clearance revoked and placed on leave pending a federal investigation. Al Arabiya English has contacted the State Department to ask if they will be sending any representatives to the meetings next week.

Ahead of these meetings, but not directly related, US President Joe Biden’s top national security aide will lead a senior delegation to Saudi Arabia this weekend. National Security Advisor Jake Sullivan and other top White House officials are also expected to go to Israel amid the monthslong war between Israel and Hamas.

Washington and its GCC allies formed a partnership following the Camp David Summit in May 2015, with Saudi Arabia, UAE, Kuwait, Oman, Qatar and Bahrain committing to establish a stronger partnership to address regional challenges.

“This partnership is based on reciprocal commitments to IMPROVE THE SECURITY, STABILITY AND PROSPERITY OF THE REGION,” the White House said.

Unprecedented US-Gulf military coordination

Next week’s defense meetings come on the heels of last week’s joint military exercises between Saudi Arabia, the UAE and the US.

Exercise Native Fury 24 (NF24) utilized a Saudi port facility in the Red Sea, Saudi Arabia’s Prince Sultan Air Base, the UAE’s Al Dhafra Air Base, and a UAE port facility in the Gulf of Oman.

NF24 showcased the US and partner forces engaging in on-load and off-load operations using commercial maritime shipping, long-distance convoys, urban combat training, and various dynamic training events in Saudi Arabia and the UAE.

The purpose of NF24 was to practice combined abilities between the three countries to conduct maritime logistics of troops and equipment and then effectively move those troops and all their gear across the Arabian Peninsula, a US defense official told Al Arabiya English. “By engaging in regional exercises, we aim to enhance interoperability with our partners and prepare for potential responses to crises and other contingencies in the area,” the official said.

Although NF24 was in its eighth iteration, there were several unique achievements this year.

The official said that includes the first-ever integration of US Army Autonomous Tactical Vehicle Systems into US Marine logistics formations and the first multilateral iteration between the US, Saudi Arabia and the UAE.

Previous iterations were limited to bilateral exercises as opposed to this year’s multilateral.

“NF24 represents a significant milestone in the US military’s collaboration with the Royal Saudi Armed Forces and United Arab Emirates Armed Forces, demonstrating the positive outcomes of sustained cooperation,” CENTCOM said in a statement.

Nuclear threats from China, Russia drive work on W93 for submarine-launched missiles by 2030s

https://www.youtube.com/shorts/xWyH\_Msnq7E

The Washington Times - Thursday, April 18, 2024

THE UNITED STATES IS BUILDING THE FIRST NEW NUCLEAR WARHEAD IN 40 YEARS BUT WILL DO SO WITHOUT NUCLEAR TESTING, ENERGY DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS TOLD CONGRESS ON WEDNESDAY.

The W93 warhead will be used on submarine-launched ballistic missiles and is being built with $19.8 billion requested by the National Nuclear Security Agency, or NNSA, for weapons in fiscal 2025, according to Senate testimony by Energy Secretary Jennifer Granholm and NNSA Administrator Jill Hruby.

The W93 has been in an early phase of feasibility and design at Los Alamos National Laboratory since May 2022 and is “on track” for production beginning in the mid-2030s, the two officials said in prepared testimony to the Senate Armed Services Committee.

Nuclear forces modernization is the Pentagon’s top priority, and the Navy’s nuclear-missile submarines are considered the linchpin of U.S. strategic nuclear forces, which also include ICBMs and bombers.

NNSA stated on its website that THE W93 “WILL ALLOW THE U.S. TO KEEP PACE WITH FUTURE ADVERSARY THREATS.”

All nuclear components will be based on currently deployed and previously tested nuclear designs.

The W93 will include modern technologies, such as insensitive high explosives used for triggering. Other new features will include improved safety, security and flexibility “to address future threats,” the NNSA said.

The warhead is said to be lighter than the current W76 and W88 warheads, allowing greater missile ranges.

The nuclear missile submarine forces will be scaled down from 14 Ohio-class submarines to 12 Columbia-class missile boats.

THE DEPARTMENT IS (5) ALSO MODERNIZING FIVE WARHEAD TYPES — the B61-12 life extension program, the B61-13, the W88, W87, and W80 warheads under a funding request of $2.84 billion, the two officials’ testimony states.

The B61 is a nuclear gravity bomb dropped by aircraft, and the newer variant will be built by 2025.

The Biden administration, however, failed to request funds for the new submarine-launched cruise missile-nuclear, known as SLCM-N in the current budget, the two officials stated, blaming the timing of last year's defense authorization enactment.

The SLCM-N likely will be armed with the W80 warhead, Ms. Hruby said in a committee hearing.

The W80 will also be used on the Air Force's new air-launched, long-range missile.

Congress demanded the nuclear cruise missile in legislation after its development was opposed by the administration.

NNSA will continue to work with the Pentagon and Congress to comply with the law, the officials said. THE PENTAGON-ENERGY NUCLEAR WEAPONS COUNCIL ORDERED DEVELOPMENT OF THE NEW WARHEAD TO BE SPED UP AND THE FUNDS REQUESTED FOR IT WILL SEEK TO ACHIEVE THAT, Ms. Granholm and Ms. Hruby's testimony states.

"The W93 is a new warhead program based on existing designs that will not require new underground nuclear explosive testing," the two women stated. The number used for the warhead — W93 — is the latest effort at a new warhead. The W89 and W92 were canceled after the fall of the Soviet Union in 1991. The United States is adhering to a nuclear testing moratorium despite the Senate having rejected the proposed Nuclear Test Ban Treaty in 1999.

"The W93 will meet DoD requirements to enhance operational effectiveness of the U.S. ballistic missile submarine force," Ms. Granholm and Ms. Hruby said.

Plutonium pits for the warhead will be produced at Savannah River National Laboratory in South Carolina.

The warhead, which was requested by Adm. Charles Richard in late 2020 when he was commander of the Omaha-based Strategic Command, will be built with assistance from the British government, which also will be deploying the weapon.

Adm. Richard, who retired in January 2023, was the first nuclear forces commander to sound the alarm on what he termed CHINA'S NUCLEAR "BREAKOUT." ## U.S. AND SAUDIS WORK ON NUCLEAR SECURITY PACT

President Biden is pushing for a broad deal that would get Israel to approve a Palestinian nation in return for Saudi recognition of Israel. But officials need to overcome Israeli opposition.

Two years into President Biden's term, his aides began negotiating with Saudi leaders to have the kingdom establish diplomatic relations with Israel. But when the Israel-Hamas war began last October, the talks withered.

American and Saudi officials have tried to revive prospects for a deal by demanding more from Israel — a cease-fire in Gaza and irreversible steps toward the founding of a Palestinian nation. Now those officials say they are close to a final agreement on THE MAIN ELEMENTS OF WHAT THE SAUDIS WANT FROM THE DEAL: A U.S.-SAUDI MUTUAL DEFENSE PACT AND COOPERATION ON A CIVILIAN NUCLEAR PROGRAM IN THE KINGDOM.

Secretary of State Antony J. Blinken spoke with Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman, the de facto Saudi leader, about these matters in private on his visit last month to Riyadh, according to the State Department. And Jake Sullivan, the White House national security adviser, is expected to follow up when he goes to Saudi Arabia and Israel this weekend.

But there are no signs that Israeli leaders are moving to join them, despite the symbolic importance for Israel of establishing ties with Saudi Arabia, the most powerful Arab nation.

That resistance, along with a potential full-scale assault by the Israeli military on the Palestinian city of Rafah, puts in jeopardy a potential three-way grand bargain that Mr. Biden envisions as the foundation to a long-term solution to the decades-old Israeli-Palestinian conflict.

Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of Israel has rebuffed calls for the creation of a Palestinian state, saying that it would become a “terror haven.” Most Israelis also oppose it, according to polls. Mr. Netanyahu has not proposed a governance system for Gaza, and Yoav Gallant, the defense minister, criticized him on Wednesday for the lack of such a plan.

SINCE MR. BLINKEN’S VISIT TO SAUDI ARABIA, AMERICAN AND SAUDI OFFICIALS HAVE BEGUN CHALLENGING MR. NETANYAHU BY PUBLICLY SAYING THEY ARE GETTING CLOSER TO AGREEMENT ON A PACKAGE THAT THEY WILL OFFER ISRAEL. MR. NETANYAHU CAN EITHER TAKE THE MEGADEAL AND MOVE TOWARD REGIONAL PEACE AND POTENTIAL SECURITY COOPERATION WITH SAUDI ARABIA THAT COULD COUNTER IRAN, THEIR SHARED ADVERSARY — OR REJECT IT AND PERPETUATE THE CYCLE OF ISRAELI-PALESTINIAN VIOLENCE AND ISRAEL’S ISOLATION IN THE REGION, THEY SAY.

“WE CONTINUE TO WORK TO FINALIZE BOTH THE BILATERAL PIECES OF SUCH AN AGREEMENT AS WELL AS WHAT THE PATHWAY TO AN INDEPENDENT PALESTINIAN STATE WOULD LOOK LIKE,” Matthew Miller, the State Department spokesman, said this month.

THE “BILATERAL” PART WAS A REFERENCE TO THE TALKS BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND SAUDI ARABIA ON THEIR AGREEMENT, WHICH IN ADDITION TO A DEFENSE TREATY WOULD INVOLVE COOPERATION ON A CIVILIAN NUCLEAR PROGRAM WITH URANIUM ENRICHMENT IN THE KINGDOM, THE SALE OF ADVANCED AMERICAN-MADE WEAPONS and, potentially, a trade deal.

U.S. officials have emphasized that Israel must agree to a Palestinian state for any agreement to be finalized. Mr. Sullivan delivered that message on May 4 at a Financial Times conference in London.

“The integrated vision is a bilateral understanding between the U.S. and Saudi Arabia combined with normalization between Israel and Saudi Arabia, combined with meaningful steps on behalf of the Palestinian people,” he said, adding: “All of that has to come together.”

This month, some Saudi and American policy analysts who were briefed by Saudi officials have argued that a bilateral deal — a “plan B” — might be the best course because the Israeli-Palestinian part seemed too difficult to achieve.

Saudi officials have not made any such suggestion publicly and continue to insist on a larger deal with an Israeli commitment on a Palestinian nation. But they have noted how far the U.S.-Saudi talks have advanced.

“WE ARE VERY, VERY CLOSE; MOST OF THE WORK HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE,” Prince Faisal bin Farhan, the foreign minister of Saudi Arabia, said at the World Economic Forum in Riyadh last month. On a pathway to a Palestinian state, he said, “We have the broad outlines of what we think needs to happen.”

He suggested that Israel could be persuaded, referring to “mechanisms within the toolbox of the international community that can overcome the resistance of any party, any spoiler, on any side.”

However, even the Saudis’ most immediate demand of Israel — a sustainable cease-fire in Gaza — seems out of reach for now. Israel has avoided committing to a permanent cease-fire, and efforts by Arab mediators to get Israel to agree to a temporary cease-fire for the release of some hostages faltered last week. At the same time, Israel has stepped up strikes in Rafah, where more than one million Palestinians have sought shelter.

Saudi Arabia, the United States and other nations have warned Israel not to carry out a major offensive there.

Given all that, Saudi officials remain wary of the domestic political cost of normalizing relations with Israel.

“At this stage, it looks like a long shot,” said Ali Shihabi, a Saudi analyst close to the government.

Some officials in the region say the United Arab Emirates and Bahrain got very little out of normalizing ties with Israel under the Abraham Accords that the Trump administration helped engineer in 2020. The Israeli government did not fulfill promises to respect Palestinian territory in the West Bank.

“We hear this from Saudis all the time: look what happened to the Emiratis, look what happened to the Bahrainis, when they went full on,” said Ghaith al-Omari, a senior fellow at the Washington Institute for Near East Policy.

Before the war, U.S. and Saudi officials planned to ask the Israelis for modest concessions for the Palestinians, U.S. officials say. But the stakes are higher now. Mr. Biden sees a deal involving a Palestinian nation as a critical component of the war’s endgame. And Israeli acquiescence to such a state could be the only way for Prince Mohammed to get broad support for the deal from citizens enraged by the killings of an estimated 35,000 Palestinians in Gaza.

Mr. Biden’s willingness to grant a mutual defense treaty and other benefits to Prince Mohammed is a sharp departure from his vow during the 2020 presidential campaign to ensure the country remains a “pariah” because of human rights violations. Those include the killings of civilians during the Yemen war and the murder in 2018 of Jamal Khashoggi, a Washington Post columnist and Virginia resident, by Saudi agents in Istanbul.

U.S. and Saudi officials are modeling the defense treaty on the pacts that the United States has with Japan and its other Asian allies. The two sides are trying to work out the conditions that would trigger a mutual defense clause.

PRINCE MOHAMMED WANTS A TREATY THAT IS RATIFIED BY A SUPERMAJORITY IN THE U.S. SENATE. But administration officials say that would be hard without a robust Israeli-Palestinian component in the deal, since skepticism of Saudi Arabia is strong among many Democratic and some Republican lawmakers.

For Saudi Arabia, the biggest threat is Iran. Saudi officials remain bitter that the Trump administration did not intervene militarily when oil installations in the kingdom were attacked with drones and missiles in 2019 — an assault that Saudi and U.S. officials say was linked to Iran.

“The basic concept that they’ve been trying to establish is: What would trigger U.S. kinetic action in defense of Saudi Arabia?” said Hussein Ibish, a senior scholar at the Arab Gulf States Institute in Washington.

“Saudi Arabia and others, including the Emirates, don’t know when the U.S. would act,” he added.

<https://youtu.be/JeRuWXjjNZU>

U.S. OFFICIALS SAY THEY ALSO PLAN TO EXTRACT PROMISES FROM SAUDI ARABIA TO LIMIT COOPERATION WITH CHINA ON MILITARY MATTERS AND ON ADVANCED TECHNOLOGY, AND THAT THE KINGDOM WOULD CONTINUE TO BUY OIL IN DOLLARS RATHER THAN RENMINBI, CHINA’S CURRENCY. But some American analysts say they are puzzled about why U.S. officials insist this is an important reason to make a deal with the Saudis. China has no interest in being a security guarantor in the Middle East. And analysts say there is little chance that Saudi Arabia would forsake the dollar — which its own currency is pegged to — for the renminbi.

The Biden administration also hopes Saudi Arabia will commit to keeping oil prices from surging, especially as the U.S. presidential election approaches. U.S. and Saudi officials clashed over such perceived promises in 2022, when the Saudis went against Mr. Biden’s wishes.

LOCKING IN AMERICAN COOPERATION ON A CIVILIAN NUCLEAR PROGRAM IS IMPORTANT FOR PRINCE MOHAMMED. U.S. AND SAUDI NEGOTIATORS ARE WORKING OUT DETAILS OF HOW THE UNITED STATES WOULD MAINTAIN STRICT OVERSIGHT OF IN-COUNTRY URANIUM ENRICHMENT, OFFICIALS SAY.

PRINCE MOHAMMED SAYS HE WILL DEVELOP NUCLEAR WEAPONS IF IRAN DOES SO, AND SOME U.S. LAWMAKERS AND MANY ISRAELI OFFICIALS OPPOSE SAUDI ARABIA HAVING A NUCLEAR PROGRAM OF ANY KIND.

Karen Young, a senior research scholar at Columbia University's Center on Global Energy Policy, said THE NUCLEAR PROGRAM WAS THE "NO. 1 PRIORITY" FOR PRINCE MOHAMMED.

For Saudi Arabia, she asserted, "it's always been a bilateral deal; it's not a trilateral one."

"ISRAEL IS SO PERIPHERAL," SHE SAID, "WHICH IS BEYOND IRONIC."

Make Your (7) Decision for Christ NOW!!!!!! Time is Up!!!!!!

Jesus Christ's Offer of Salvation:

<https://youtu.be/4lzupUaqVM0>

The ABCs (7) of Salvation through Jesus Christ (the Lamb)

A. (7) Admit/Acknowledge/Accept that you are sinner. Ask (7) God's forgiveness and repent of your sins.

. . . "For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God." (Romans 3:23).

. . . "As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one." (Romans 3:10).

. . . "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us." (1 John 1:8).

B. Believe Jesus is Lord. Believe that (7) Jesus Christ is who He claimed to (7) be; that He was both fully God (7) and fully man and that we are (7) saved through His death, burial, and resurrection. (7) Put your trust in Him as your (7) only hope of salvation. Become a son (7) or daughter of God by receiving Christ. (7777777) 7x7

. . . "That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. (John 3:15-17). For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved." (Romans 10:13).

C. Call upon His name, Confess (7) with your heart and with your lips (7) that Jesus is your Lord and Savior.

. . . "That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation." (Romans 10:9-10).

. . . "If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us." (John 1:8-10).
